The Tennessee Council for the Deaf & Hard of Hearing (TCDHH) was created in 1978 by the Tennessee General Assembly. The applicable statute can be found at Tennessee Code Annotated 74-4-2102. The Council is located within the Tennessee Department of Human Services and is an integral part of the Division of Rehabilitation Services.

Our Mission

The Tennessee Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing exists to serve as an advocate for services affecting Deaf and Hard of Hearing persons through coordination, public awareness, and consultation in areas of public service, health care, education, and employment.

Responsibilities

The Tennessee Council for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing has the statutory responsibility to:

1. Advocate for services affecting the Deaf and Hard of Hearing in the areas of public services, health care, education, vocational rehabilitation, and employment;
2. Act as a bureau of information for state agencies and public institutions providing health care, educational, vocational, and/or employment related services to persons who are deaf or hard of hearing, and to local agencies and programs;
3. Collect facts and statistics and special studies of conditions affecting the health and welfare of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing in this state;
4. Provide for a mutual exchange of ideas and information on the national, state, and local levels;
5. Encourage and assist local governments in the development of programs for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing;
6. Cooperate with public and private agencies and units of local, state, and federal governments in promoting coordination in programs for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing;
7. Authorize the Executive Director to prepare an annual report to the Council which reviews the status of state services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing. The Council will submit the approved report to the General Assembly and make this report available to organizations serving the Deaf and Hard of Hearing; and
8. Make recommendations for needed improvements and to serve as an advisory body in regard to new legislation affecting the Deaf and Hard of Hearing.

Major Activities

The Council was involved in a number of activities during the last fiscal year. They included:

- Meeting with key groups regarding requirements for educational interpreters
- Promoting new-born hearing screening legislation
- Promoting hearing aid insurance legislation
- Promoting mental health services for the Deaf, Hard of Hearing, and Deaf-Blind
- Promoting suicide prevention for the Deaf, Hard of Hearing, and Deaf-Blind
- Promoting awareness of this population's special needs to sub-committees of the Tennessee Emergency Management Agency
- Providing information regarding financial assistance for hearing aids
- Providing information regarding telecommunication equipment
- Providing information regarding interpreting services in Tennessee
- Providing information regarding legal rights of the Deaf, Hard of Hearing, and Deaf-Blind
- Supporting Deaf Awareness Activities across Tennessee
- Providing technical support and resource information to Vocational Rehabilitation Counselors serving the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

Community Centers for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

The Division of Rehabilitation Services provides funding for Community Centers for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing in Johnson City, Knoxville, Chattanooga, Nashville, Jackson, and Memphis. These Community Centers report to the Council during quarterly meetings and submit their statistical data to the Executive Director of TCDHH who compiles it for the Division. The Division provided $1,020,000.00 in funding in performance based contracts for these six (6) regional centers to provide:

- Interpreting services
- Information and referral
